

I love you so much

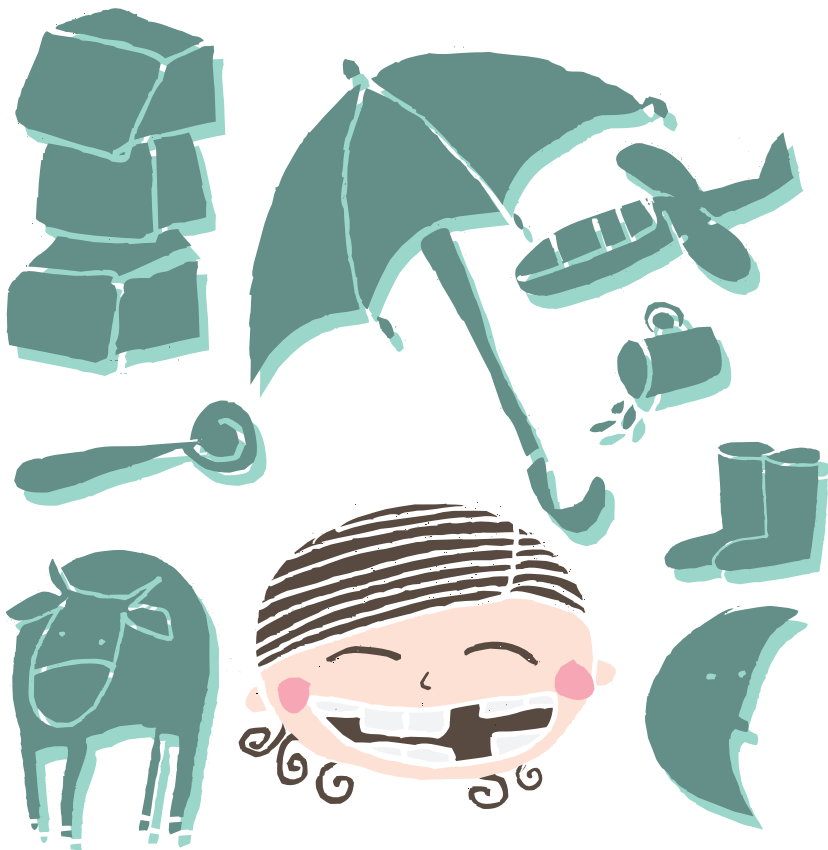

This book belongs to:

Isn't it nice? This cuddling, this fondling, this breast feeding.
But it's time to try something different, because breast feeding is mostly for tiny tots. And you are no longer a tiny tot.

You know that cow does „moo“ and plane does „wrooom“

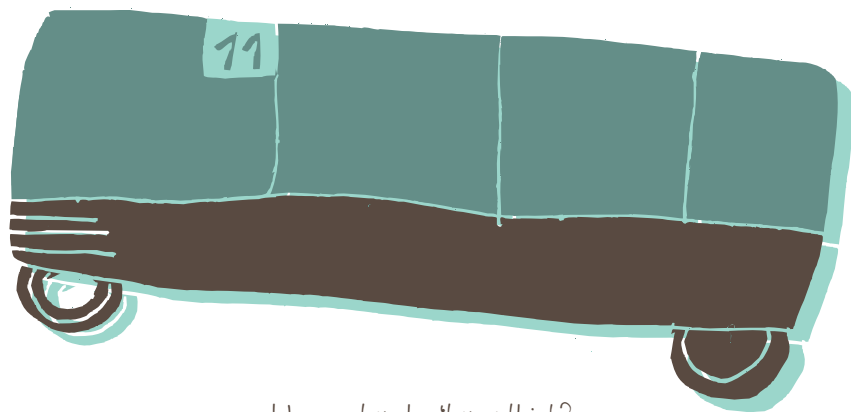

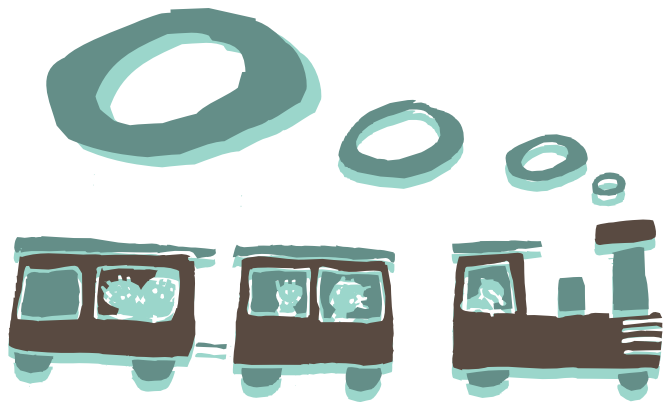

You can drink from a cup, eat with your little spoon and build cube high tower. You can tell what is in the right bottom of this page. You wear gumboots and umbrella. And you have almost all the teeth!

And you eat everything you find!

We can try, don't you think?
And then - when we succeed, we can take some perfect journey or something like this.

But if you won't help me, i will punish you so hard and mercilessly!
